

Year 2 Drawing - telling a story - Can I express emotions and stories through drawing?

Vocabulary	Images to help me...	Sticky Knowledge and Skills
blending charcoal concertina cross hatching emoji emotion expression frame hatching illustrations illustrator lines mark-making re-tell scribbling sketch stippling storyboard texture thick thin	Using charcoal  Artists Picasso  Dennis Creffield 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> 'Composition' means how things are arranged on the page.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Lines can be used to fill shapes, to make outlines and to add detail or pattern.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Hatching, scribbling, stippling, and blending can make patterns and texture.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Marks and lines can show sounds, textures, and feelings.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> I can use drawing and simple book-making techniques to tell a story.</li> </ul>