Christmas Message from Mrs Clayton

Wishing all of our families a very Happy Christmas and we look forward to seeing you all in the New Year. Thank you so much for your kind Christmas wishes, cards and gifts.

Our Nativity Crib

We hope you have had a chance to view our beautiful Nativity scene. This will now be part of our Christmas celebrations for generations of St Anne Line children to come. It was purchased from funds from our Summer BBQ and International Christmas Fayre.

INFANT CHILDREN RETURN TO SCHOOL

The children return to school on Monday 8th January 2024.

Special Christmas Prayer

Dear God,

Thank you for Baby Jesus.

Amen

Christmas Jumper Day

Thank you so much for supporting the Save the Children charity today. The children enjoyed wearing their Christmas jumpers. We will let you know how much money we raised in the next newsletter.

School Admissions September 2024 (Reception/Yr 3)

If your child is presently in Nursery or Yr 2, School Admissions Applications started on Monday 6 November for Reception/Yr 3 places (until 15 January 2024). Please look on the Essex County Council School Admissions Website.

Reception Classes – Height, Weight and Vision Check

A letter came home this week with Reception children. If you do not wish your child to take part in the screening in the New Year, please see the contact details included in the letter, rather than notifying the school office. Thank you for your support.

After School Activity & Sports Activity Clubs

The new After School Activity & Sports Activity Clubs will now commence Monday 15th January, instead of Monday 8th January. A message will be sent the week commencing Monday 8th January with the club details.

Celebrating Christmas in School today

The children had a wonderful time in school today, firstly with a special Christmas assembly. Santa then visited the classrooms and later the children enjoyed a very festive Christmas lunch.
